8. A method as recited in claim 23, further comprising:

    determining which people that access the on-line form are permitted to interact therewith based on an assessment of at least one of the person's knowledge of the law and the person's knowledge of the facts, wherein the determining step includes assessing the person's knowledge by providing the person a set of one or more questions and evaluating the person's responses to the questions.

9. A method of resolving a dispute, comprising:

    at least one of a plurality of parties to the dispute providing, via an on-line connection, an input relating to the dispute;

    information related to resolution of the dispute being provided, via the on-line connection, to at least one of the parties;

    providing at least a portion of the input in a publicly accessible on-line form and allowing at least some people who access the on-line form to interact therewith; and determining which people that access the on-line form are permitted to interact therewith based on an assessment of at least one of the person's knowledge of the law and the person's knowledge of the facts, wherein the determining step includes assessing the person's knowledge by providing the person a set of one or more questions and evaluating the person's responses to the questions, wherein the person is provided another set of questions from the larger set of questions if the person does not answer a predetermined number of the questions correctly, and wherein the dispute is resolved based at least in part on input from the person.

10. A method as recited in claim 9, further comprising the step of providing educational information to the person prior to providing the another set of questions.

21. A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the determining step is based on an assessment of the person's knowledge of the law.

22. A method as recited in claim 8, wherein the determining step is based on an assessment of the person's knowledge of the facts.

23. A method of resolving a dispute, comprising:

at least one of a plurality of parties to the dispute providing, via an on-line connection, an input relating to the dispute; and interaction directed towards resolving the dispute occurring in substantially real-time between at least one of the parties to the dispute and another person, wherein the substantial real-time interaction is displayed on at least a display and wherein the dispute is resolved based at least in part on the interaction.

24. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the other person is a juror.

25. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the other person is a third party other than one of the parties to the dispute.

26. A method as recited in claim 25, further comprising the step of enabling another third party to view the dispute without enabling the other third party to interact with the parties.
27. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the interaction comprises a question directed to the at least one of the parties.
28. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the interaction comprises a vote on which party should prevail.
29. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the input is in written form.
30. A method as recited in claim 26, further comprising the step of enabling the third party to interact based on an assessment of the third party's knowledge of the law.
31. A method as recited in claim 26, further comprising the step of enabling the third party to interact based on an assessment of the third party's knowledge of the facts.
32. A method as recited in claim 23, further comprising the step of providing, via the on-line connection, information related to resolution of the dispute to at least one of the parties.
34. A method as recited in claim 23 wherein a computer based system manages the interaction between the parties.
35. A method as recited in claim 23, wherein the input is related to real life facts.
36. A method as recited in claim 1, wherein the dispute related advertising field includes an advertisement related to a fact of the dispute.
37. A method of resolving a dispute, comprising:

(a) at least one of a plurality of parties to the dispute providing, via an on-line connection, an input relating to the dispute; and

(b) interaction, directed towards resolving the dispute occurring in substantially real-time, between a third party and at least one of the parties to the dispute, wherein the dispute is resolved based at least in part on the interaction.

38. The method of claim 37 wherein steps (a) and (b) occur at substantially the same time.

39. The method of claim 37 wherein the substantial real-time interaction is displayed on at least a display.

40. A system for fostering the resolution of a dispute, comprising:

a computer adapted to receive from at least one of a plurality of parties to the dispute, via an on-line connection, an input relating to the dispute;

the computer further adapted to receive an interaction directed towards resolving the dispute in substantially real-time between at least one of the parties to the dispute and a third party, wherein the dispute is resolved based at least in part on the interaction.
